Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Applicant's admitted prior art.

Applicant's admitted prior art Fig. 1 disclose the claimed invention. A switching device (130) operable to perform a switching operation corresponding to a gate control signal input to a gate terminal, convert an input direct current to an alternating current, and output the alternating current, an HVIC (110) operable to input the gate control signal to the gate terminal of the switching device, a controller (120) operable to input to the HVIC a control signal for enabling the HVIC to generate the gate control signal, an impedance cell (161-163) located between the HVIC and one terminal of the switching device operable to reduce voltage drop of the HVIC, a bootstrap circuit (151-154) operable to transmit energy to a high-side region of the HVIC, a power source (Vcc), a bootstrap resistor (152) connected in series to the power source, a bootstrap diode (153) having an anode terminal connected in series to the bootstrap resistor and having
